Editorial Comment.

The statement made by MANITARY BOARD the President of the Sanitary Board to-day regard-'CHINA MAIL,' ing the movement of infected -patients from Kowloon Peninsula will be received with sume degree of satisfaction. We are pleased to have been the medium of eliciting this statement, for the public mind has been greatly agitated over the recrudesence of plague and qualipox and needs some steadying statement to prevent panie. For our own part, we did not make the statements which appeared in Saturday's issue without very careful enquiry; and while we accept the assurances of Mr Chatham, and wolcome them, we can only say that 18.00 our information was so explicit in detail that we felt justified in calling attention to a state of affairs, which, if true, would have constituted a serious menace to the public health. It was not outside our knowledge that the Sanitary staff usually conveyed cases to Kennedytown by private boat from Kowloon, but our information was that a certain number of cases had been conveyed otherwise. This is apparently not within the knowledge of the Sanitary Board, and if any cases are so carried it is contrary to the wishes of the Board. We may add that we had no desire to imply that the Board's officers were neglecting their duty, but Naval Nows. The death is announced of Rear-Admiral James Minchin Bruce at Worthing, aged 68, son of Admiral Sir Henry William Bruce. He was a second cousin of Sir James A. T. Bruce, the second in command of the China Station. He had no war services, and retired with the rank of captain in 1873.

wished rather to help them to check a dangerous practice. While it is desirable to concentrate medical and sanitary effort,

it may be urged in passing, that the time is surely come when steps should be taken to obviate the transport of native infectious

Cricket. The Committee of the M.C.C. on the 1st April approved of the action taken by the captains last December with reference may so far strengthen the hands of umpires as to enable the difficulty to be met without recourse to such drastic measures.

Per Case Government Notifications.

The following notifications appear in the Government Gazette: - Mr C. S. Sharp has been appointed a member of the Medical Board in place of Mr Marshall resigned. Mr E. A. Irving has been provisionally appointed Inspector of Schools. Mr Wong Wing-chiu has been appointed | England :-First Clerk in the Registrar General's office in succession to Mr P. P. J. Wodehouse, promoted. Mr C. Clementi, cadet, passed his final examination in Chinese on the 20th December last.

A Welcome Appointment.

The Gazette notifies :- ' Foreign Office, Feb. 1: The King has been graciously pleased to appoint Sir Walter Caine Hillier, K.C.M.G., to be Acting First Secretary to His Majesty's Legation at Peking.' This is a style of appointment that will undoubtedly be welcomed by all connected diplomatically with China, says the L. and C. Express. It is a return to the time when men like Sir Thomas were the First Secretary and Chinese to be PURE COGNAC, the difference | Secretary, and very distinctly the righthand man of the Minister. Such appointment might well be held out as a prize to the most eminent of the senior men in the British Consular Service in China. He would be the centre of the Intelligence Department of the Legation, and would naturally always attend his Minister's interviews with what was the Tsung li Yamen, but which in future will, we trust, be the Chinese Minister for Forelgu Affairs.

The type ornament utilised is so clearly a copy of the originals that it is not surprising to learn from our correspondent that wood-cutting is a great feature of the Chinese comp, and that from back numbers of the B.P. they have copied many panels and electro designs. This faculty for copying no doubt explains their progress in job printing. Machinemen on this side will be interested to learn that there are drawbacks to printing even in China. We are told the rollers are a chief trouble, it being necessary to recast them every week, summer and winter. They are like a sponge in summer and as hard as stone in winter. It is matter for warm congratulation to find such real progress being made in matters printerian in a corner of the globe so tar from the old country.

The Chairman read the following report from Dr Clark :- I have the honour to and-Mouth disease in the Siege Train bullock lines at Gun Club Hill, Kowloon. There are 380 bullocks in these lines, and the two infected animals were isolated as soon as the disease was recognised, and as the animals are all in the open it is possible. that the disease may not apread. The remainder of the herd will be crefully examined daily, and any animals showing suspicious symptoms will be isolated at once. I find that the animals are watered at a trough beside the Briquette Worke, and to reach this they have to traverse Austin Road. I would suggest that the Government he asked to instruct the Public Works Department to at once lay a water pipe to within the bullock lines, so that the animals might be kept off the public roads. Goddard's report.

In spite of the unpromising weather and lities. The progress of the story is purposely retarded, that we may be given an exhibition of the verbal conceits, light wordy parry and thrust, and conversational fireworks of smart folk. This needless subordination of dramatic material and stagecraft to more meretricious decorative ornament, is the most noticeable defect in all Oscar Wilde's productions. We greatly admire the undoubted telent displayed but, at the same time, we strengously re- fected clothing were sent over by a Star sent the too obviously strained effort to keep it, at all costs, constantly before us. The best art, totally irrespective of its mode of expression, is absolutely unforced. An Ideal Husband' is markedly typical of all Wilde's work; from a literary point of view it is undoubtedly exceedingly clever, but, from the play-goor's standpoint, it suffers from the defects already named Moreover, it teaches no great lesson while it is pervaded throughout with, we think an unwarranted spirit of well-nigh invinstanding was reached between France and cible and depressing pessimism.

When quite a young man, he had sold a cabinet secret concerning the purchase of Suez Canal shares to a Baron Arnheim, an international political broker; he had received as his share of the transaction, £85,000, which had been the beginning of still greater accumulations of wealth on his part. The letter mentioning this transaction falls into the hands of an unsorupulous adventutess, Mr Cheveley. It is the hinge on which the whole plot turns. Mr W. T. Lovell's Sir Robert was a carefully acted part; it is one that makes many varied calls on an actor's capabilities, all of which Mr Lovell satisfacwell carried out study. THE SIEGE OF TIENTSIN:

Mr Jim Watts Gallantry.

In the House of Commons, on 2nd Apr Mr Yerburgh asked the Secretary of Star for War whether the Government had in 522 any way acknowledged the service rendered by Mr James Watts, a British subject, who during the recent siege of Tientsin rode from there to Ta-ku, through a country dredths. swarming with Boxors, to convoy information to Admiral Bruce as to the serious state of affairs then prevailing at Tientsiu, and whether the German Government had decorated Mr Watts.

Viscount Crosborne, who replied, said His Majesty's Government have expressed to Mr Watts their high appreciation of the gallant and distinguished service rendered by him to the European community at Tientsin during the siege, but he is, unfortunately, not eligible by existing warrants for any British order or medal. The German Emperor has signified his desire to 936 confer a medal upon Mr Wats.
